

Careers Springboard West Berkshire

Careers Springboard West Berkshire is a self-help group supporting out-of-work professionals, executives and managers in the West Berkshire area who are seeking a new job. It is a volunteer-led organisation supported by the Branshaw Foundation, nextstep Berkshire, Newbury Town Council, and The Greenham Common Trust.

Job seeker benefits include

- Meetings – weekly meetings for practical tips (see programme)
- Individual Guidance Sessions – personalized help on job search
- Hand-outs - hand-outs of each meeting's slides and notes
- Work Sheets - guidance notes, checklists, dos and don'ts
- Weekly emails - Emails about meetings and other news
- Job Vacancy Database - Access to a country-wide database of jobs
- Adult Directions - A career planning tool
- Interview Practice - 1-on-1 interviewing practice
- and more

There is no charge for our meetings or these benefits.

Volunteers

If you are interested in helping others re-launch their careers and can volunteer some of your time - as little as twice a year - or more frequently if you can, then why not apply to become a speaker, mentor or help in another way.

For further information contact George Athorn on 01635 253447 or email: volunteers@careerswestberks.org.uk

Employers

If you are making some of your employees redundant, or you are recruiting, or seeking personal development opportunities for your staff, then why not contact us to see if we can help. For further information contact:

email: employers@careerswestberks.org.uk
